What It Is, and How Corrected.

Asigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the eye known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSON to put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30; 2 to 6. 302 S. Elm St.

MERRY WEDDING BELLS.

The Happy Nuptials of Mr. Clendenin and Miss Pearce Last Night.

Last night at nine o'clock, in West Market Street M. E. Church, occurred the beautiful and happy wedding of Mr. John Barnes Clendenin and Miss Julia Elizabeth Pearce, both of this city.

By 8:30 o'clock the church, which had been lavishly embellished with floral loveliness, was packed with a joyous and an eager and expectant throng of the popular young couple's friends and relatives, and Miss Laura Brockmann at the organ rendered Lohengrin's wedding march most excellently.

About nine, the bride, leaning upon the arm of Miss Eunice Wood, the maid of honor, advanced up the left central aisle, attired in an elegant garment of white organdi. Her face shone pale in the white glare, but was beautiful and composed. At the altar she was met by the groom, escorted by the best man, Mr. Thos. Glascock. Joining hands the happy couple were united in the bonds that seal till death by Rev. Drs. Wood and Rowe. The ceremony was exceedingly pretty but solemnly impressive.

After the ceremonies were over, the wedding party marching to the quickened strains of Mendelssohn's, retired to waiting carriages and were driven to the bride's home. No reception was given but a number of friends gathered to extend congratulations. The gifts were numerous and beautiful.

It was a most happy event and the Telegram extends congratulations and best wishes.

The meeting was well attended and much interest manifested by those present. There are about seventy-five accepted new members to go into the old lodge, making it one of the largest orders in Greensboro. The old lodge has been in existence here for twenty years and has so far paid promptly all death claims, which amount to many thousands of dollars. The lodge will meet again this week on Saturday night to initiate the members who were unable to attend last night, and the charter will be left open for two weeks for others who wish to join. The lodge will also meet on next Wednesday night at Pythian Hall, where they organized last night.

Capt. N. L. Shaw, of Warrenton, initiated the candidates and presided over last night's meeting.

THE WAR'S FEARFUL COST.

Total Casualties to Date No Less Than 1,416.

500 HAVE DIED FROM DISEASE.

The Philippine Affair is Costing Us a Cool Million Every Day It is Prosecuted.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 15.—An official of the administration, speaking today of the Philippines, said: "Otis, with twenty-two thousand men, in February, drove the rebels many miles into the interior, and, finally returned to Manila on June 10 with his forces depleted and the army disheartened, and is now defending Manila with the help of the navy. The total casualties to date are 1,416. Upwards of 3,000 have been disabled from disease and 500 have died from disease. The cost of the campaign is a million a day, making a hundred and twenty millions for the hundred and twenty days."

SUPERIOR COURT.

The Dispensary Matter is Being Argued Today.

The case of W. C. Rankin vs. the city of Greensboro, which was set for trial this morning, was postponed indefinitely on account of the sickness of Mr. A. M. Scales, counsel for the defendant. Mr. Rankin is suing for $2,000 cash and $1,000 a year damages. Col. James E. Boyd, who is leading counsel for plaintiff, will return to Washington, D. C., tomorrow.

At 10 o'clock the hearing of the complaint, regarding the dispensary, of E. T. Garsed against the city of Greensboro was taken up. The complaint was read by John N. Staples, attorney for Garsed. The answer on the part of the city was read by Z. V. Taylor, and the answer on the part of the board of dispensary managers was read by John N. Wilson. This was followed by the speech of Mr. Staples, who spoke for one and a half hours, claiming that the act creating the dispensary was unconstitutional because it was an amendment to the city charter. Col. James T. Morehead followed with an able speech in defense of the dispensary. Court took a recess till 3 o'clock for dinner and Col. Morehead concluded his speech this afternoon. Col. Morehead was followed by Solicitor Brooks for the dispensary managers, and he is speaking as we go to press. It is likely that the arguments will not be concluded today.

WINSTON-SALEM DOINGS.

The Winston Fire Co. No. 1 Coming to Our Tournament.

Winston-Salem, June 15.—The marriage of Miss Carrie Rothrock and Mr. John Fishel was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Rothrock, 950 Oak street, at 8:30 last evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. B. Fry, pastor of Grace church. Several relatives and friends of the contracting parties were in attendance.

At a meeting of the fire committee last night it was definitely decided to let Winston Company No. 1 attend the State Tournament at Greensboro in August. The boys will contest for all of the prizes.

The mallbox scare at Mayodan is practically over.

J. C. Watkins, of Salem, attended the marriage at Bower, last night, of Miss Annie Watkins to Mr. J. W. Rees, of Booneville. It was a home wedding.

Men's $3.00 and $3.50 Shoes.

In large cities there are stores that carry nothing but $3.00 and $3.50 shoes for men. This season we are making a specialty of this line of goods, and will give to the men of Greensboro a chance to buy for $3.00 and $3.50 shoes that they have heretofore paid $4.00 and $5.00 for. This we wish to impress on our customers that these shoes are not the grade usually sold for $3.00 and $3.50, but the $4.00 and $5.00 grade. All we ask is an inspection. We know the value of these shoes will speak for themselves. Carolina Shoe Co.

New Recruits.

The following five young men have enlisted at the recruiting station for service in the regular army: Ernest L. Culbreth, James E. Cole, Charles W. Rodgers, John P. Barbee, William J. Barbee. Mr. Culbreth will be sent to Porto Rico, while the others will go to the Philippines.

POSTOFFICE AT LAKE CITY

May Soon Be Re-established by The Department.

TOWN SENT A DELEGATION

To Washington, Whose Efforts Were Energetically Assisted by Representative Wilson.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 15.—There were several Virginia republicans and democrats in the city yesterday. They were here in the interest of the appointment of supervisors of census. Among the more prominent of the leaders here were Chairman Agnew, of the republican state committee, General Brady, ex-Representative Walker, United States Marshal Brown Allen, Colonel Stith Boling, J. L. Claves, C. M. Tucker, R. M. Calfer, J. A. Frazier, and J. A. Turner, all republicans. Senators Daniel and Martin, and several of the representatives were also in the city. A meeting was held in the morning, and the division of the districts as to which shall have republican, and which democratic supervisors, was made. There has never been any doubt as to but that a fair arrangement of the districts could be made so far as Virginia is concerned, and the selection of the supervisors is acceptable to both of the political parties in the state. General Walker dictated the appointment of the supervisors in his own district, the ninth, and it is understood that the selection of the other four republican supervisors was left to the republican executive committee. Senators Daniel, and Martin, of course, select the democratic supervisors allotted to Virginia.

It was stated at the white house yesterday that the director of the census will appoint to the clerical force of the bureau persons recommended by senators and representatives, each member to be given six positions. The remaining positions will be given to others recommended by persons of influence. Every appointee, however, will be subjected to the census office examination, prescribed by the director.

Announcement is made that the post office at Lake City, S. C., may soon be re-established. Since the adjournment of congress, Representative Wilson, of the district in which Lake City is situated, has been active in his endeavors to have the postoffice department take action in the matter. The citizens of the town have seconded the efforts of Representative Wilson, and some time ago sent a strong delegation to Washington to ask that action be taken, as the business community are put to much inconvenience on account of lack of mail facilities. An inspector has been sent from Chattanooga to Lake City for the purpose of conducting a personal investigation. It is probable that Inspector Williams who has been detailed, will make his report to the postal authorities here. Several of the officials at the department are of the opinion that after the report of the inspector is received the re-establishment of the Lake City postoffice, and the appointment of a postmaster, will follow very shortly.

Postmaster-General Smith has returned to Washington from Salem, Virginia, where he went to deliver an address before the triennial reunion held at Roanoke College. The postmaster-general was at his desk in the postoffice department yesterday forenoon.

Senator McLaurin, it is stated has come out in favor of the expansion policy of the administration. During the last session he admitted being a moderate expansionist, but disclaimed being in favor of the permanent retention of the Philippines. He is now said to favor retention of these islands.

Postmasters have been appointed in North Carolina as follows: Elevation, Johnston county, Willis E. Thornton; Glass, Cabarrus county, Thomas M. Rogers; Grantville, Buncombe county, John S. Ledford; Latimore, Cleveland county, Mrs. Jennie DePriest.

Ithiel W. Massey has been commissioned postmaster at Princeton, North Carolina.

Among North Carolina people at the national capital yesterday were Messrs. George D. Bennett, of Goldsboro; G. W. Pilcher, of Charlotte; H. L. Horden and wife, Thomas D. Leonard, of Greensboro, and H. Poan, of Leaksville.

BUNTHORNE'S BRIDE.

The Interesting Story of the Opera of Patience.

Reginald Bunthorne, a leader of aestheticism, and loved by the languishing maidens of that cult, is himself in love with Patience, the village milkmaid, who, never having loved any one but her great aunt, neither reciprocates nor appreciates his passion, nor that of the love-sick maidens. However, after a serious interview with Lady Angela, who enlarges on the ennobling and unselfish passion, Patience is convinced that she is neglecting a duty, and vows to fall in love at once. At this point she meets and experiences a genuine love for her youthful play-mate, Archibald Grosvenor, also a poet. The instructions she has received from Lady Angela mislead her and she does not recognize this new emotion as love, so she carries out her intention of offering herself to Bunthorne. This she does in the midst of a festive scene which celebrates the grand raffle in which Mr. Bunthorne is to be awarded to the fortunate girl who draws the lucky number. Bunthorne is delighted to secure Patience, and repudiates the lottery. Finding he is resolved to wed Patience, the other ladies are about to discard aestheticism and marry their old sweethearts, the soldiers, when Grosvenor appears, and with one accord they transfer their affections to him. Furious at the loss of general admiration Bunthorne forces Grosvenor to discard aestheticism, hoping to recover the adulation of the ladies. In this he is disappointed, as the ladies follow Grosvenor in forsaking the aesthetic craze. Patience has her eyes opened and marries Grosvenor; the other girls marry the soldiers, leaving Bunthorne without a bride.

The Cruel Car Track.

Three colored girls in a carriage were driving up South Elm street yesterday evening and when they attempted to drive across the car track one of the wheels was demolished, giving the girls a shaking up. A gallant young son of Ham appeared on the scene and held the horse while the girls alighted. The vehicle is receiving treatment in some carriage hospital.

Howl

Because you made a mistake. Get all the good out of the error that you can and don't do so any more. When you buy a cheap cotton crash suit and it goes out of shape at the first washing don't be surprised; this is a natural result.

Don't Buy

Nothing Cheap

For hot weather. Our double swunk, non-shrinkable Linen Crash Suits are the best. They launder perfectly. No drawing up or lengthening out. Keep them clean and they always look new and dressy. Lots of our customers are wearing crash suits bought last season. They are in evidence of what we say. They are the best.

DIED LAST NIGHT.

Capt. Wyrick Passed Away After An Illness of Two Days.

Mr. Wyrick did not regain consciousness. The remains accompanied by a daughter, brother and other relatives were carried to Manchester, Va., today for interment. Manchester is the home of the deceased. ### A TRAGEDY.

Enacted in the Telegram Office This Morning.

A contemptible scoundrel came into the Telegram office this morning and with his harsh, irreverent song disturbed the tranquil monotony of the composing room. Being intimidated by a display of arms upon the part of the printer, he, with the most flagrant insolence, invaded the office of the editor, who ejected him with considerable force into the guiding hall. Here, with surpassing impud-nee he smote the city reporter upon the cheek. This could have been forgiven, but he advanced upon us. We were ready for him, and with one fell, superhuman blow we struck the scoundrel to the floor. He gazed at us with his baleful eyes, struggling in the death agony. One long, trembling gasp, and all was over.

"You ain't so fly now," we said.
